The Marrakesh Treaty: Getting Started. An International Library Workshop

Lithuanian Library for the Blind (LAB)
Skroblu st. 10, Vilnius, Lithuania

September 26-27, 2019

Organized by the Lithuanian Library for the Blind

in cooperation with EIFL, IFLA LPD Section and the Faculty of Information, University of Toronto, Canada

Programme

Day 1 – Thursday, September 26, 2019

9.30 - 10.00	Registration and coffee
Chairperson: Emilija Banionyte
10.00 - 10.10	- Welcome and introduction - Mindaugas Kvietkauskas, Minister of Culture of the Republic of Lithuania - Inga Davidoniene, Director, Lithuanian Library for the Blind
Part One. The Legal Context
10.10 - 10.45	Leader: Teresa Hackett The Marrakesh Treaty: The Basics Summary of what the treaty allows, process, current status, Marrakesh Treaty in Europe (Directive & Regulation)
10.45 - 11.15	Coffee break
11.15 - 13.00	Leader: Jonathan Band Getting Started Guide - national versions - Getting Started guide has been customized for national copyright law, and translated into the local language - Brief country-by-country overview of implementation for each country present - Opportunity for participants to ask questions, seek clarifications, understand terminology, and to make final corrections to the national versions
13.00 - 14.00	Lunch

Part Two. Getting started with practical cooperation
14.00 - 16.30 with break	Leaders: Victoria Owen, Kirsi Ylänne, Luc Maumet, Richard Orme Libraries and the Marrakesh Treaty: regional cooperation ● Practical aspects of requirements for cooperation ● Findings of participant questionnaire relating to holdings, catalogues, clients, production and cooperation ● Mechanisms for international exchange ● Group work and plenary discussion on establishing a new level of regional cooperation for Marrakesh implementation
16.30 - 17.00	Tour of the library
19.30	Conference dinner hosted by LAB

Day 2 – Friday, September 27, 2019

Chairperson: Zinaida Manzuch
Part Three. Accessible Formats and Technologies for Librarians
9.00 - 10.15	Leader: Richard Orme Accessible formats: overview for library managers ● Helping librarians in making management decisions relating to different accessible formats; how they help people with different disabilities, free and paid for solutions.
10.15 - 10.45	Break
10:45 - 12:00	Leader: Richard Orme Try out the technology! ● Make an accessible book using free software ● Experience reading accessible books by phone, tablet, computer and special devices ● Opportunity to share knowledge and ask questions about formats, software and standards
12.00 - 13.00	Lunch
Part Four. Making accessible resources discoverable - the library catalogue
13:00 - 14.15	Leaders: Victoria Owen and Luc Maumet The importance of the library holdings database ● Crucial for discoverability, interlibrary loans and cross-border exchange ● Agreement on cataloguing/metadata standards is foundational

Part Five. Getting started – creating the plan for implementation on the ground
14.15 -16.15 with break	Leaders: Kirsi Ylänne and Sania Battalova Preparing a training and implementation plan ● Each participant prepares a training and implementation plan for their home institution, including cross-border sharing with one other country. ● Participants briefly present their plan to the group.
16:15 - 16:45	Feedback on workshop
16.45 - 17.00	Wrap up and closing remarks